MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2 April 2008

Supreme Court Grants Injunction

The Supreme Court of NSW has today granted an injunction preventing the North Sydney Anzac Memorial Club Limited from considering approving resolutions relating to the proposed amalgamation with Ramsgate RSL Memorial Club Limited at its meeting of members tonight.

In granting the injunction Justice Nicholas found there was an arguable case as to whether the members of the Anzac Memorial Club Limited had "sufficient disclosure of information to deal with the business of the meeting tonight".

His Honour also found there was an arguable case as to whether the North Sydney Anzac Memorial Club Limited had complied with a regulation of The Registered Clubs' Act 1976 in relation to its amalgamation proposal.

The matter will now proceed to a final hearing.

The judgement of Justice Nicholas is scheduled to be available on the Supreme Court Website, www.lawlink.nsw.gov.au/sc from 3 April, 2008.
